

Board Composition

Walter Dyck

Walter offers a plethora of experience in the oil, retail and agriculture sectors. He is a significant contributor in his community and has successfully run multiple businesses.

Rebecca King

Rebecca is a councillor for the Town of Slave Lake. She has significant interest in improving and the business environment in the Slave Lake Region. She currently operates her own personal services business.

Richard Simard

Richard is the reeve for the County of Big Lakes. He has been an active business owner in this region for a significant amount of time. He has owned business in insurance. Richard truly cares for the businesses in our region and wants to see growth.

Bradley Pearson

Bradley is a councillor for the MD of Lesser Slave River. He has a keen interest in helping the economic growth of the Slave Lake Region. Bradley has experience in business and investments.

Marcel Auger

Marcel is the reeve for the MD of Opportunity. He has worked in and owned a business in the oil industry for many years. He is a member of the indigenous community. He would like to see prosperity for our community.

Kimberly Hughes

Kim is the Executive Director of the Slave Lake and District Chamber of Commerce. Kim has always been passionate about her community and business. She owns and works in a successful retail establishment in the Town of Slave Lake.

Steven Adams

Steven currently owns and runs the Slave Lake branch of Re/Max. He has worked as a business owner in both the oil and realty industries. He has a passion for business and is always searching for innovative change for the future.